RICHARD CALVIN DAVENPORT

One who never turned his back but marched breast forward,
Never doubted clouds would break,
Never dreamed, though right were worsted, wrong would triumph,
Held we fall to rise, are baffled to fight better,
Sleep to wake.

MRS. CLEM B. UTLEY

Mrs. Clem Bridges Utley was one of the very finest people with whom I have ever come in contact. She was a great person.

She was great because of her great character. She was a person of absolute mental and moral integrity. She was a straight thinker and, therefore, lived straight. She possessed one of the keenest intellects I have ever contacted.

With her piercing insight into all problems she could easily remove whatever was unnecessary and of no value from her thinking and go straight to the heart of the problem.

If she had cared anything about self glory and about herself, she could have been a great authoress or a great newspaper woman or magazine writer. The reason she never went into those other fields for her own sake was that she was always thinking of other people. She felt that her first and perhaps only obligation was to others.

As a teacher she never drove; she always led. She was a rare combination as a teacher. She could teach English; she could teach mathematics; she could teach Latin; she could teach journalism; she could teach them all successfully; therefore, she was one of the most versatile teachers whom I have ever known.

Her influence will be felt in Greenville and in Greenville High School as long as there is a Greenville.

To my way of thinking, the best way of honoring Mrs. Utley, now that she is gone, is for every person connected with the Greenville High School to try to do some of the things that she would like for us to do if she were here. Some of the things that she stood for are absolute honesty in thinking and in acting, scholarship of the highest type, self control, courage, and gentleness of spirit.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Weary and tearful we, the graduating class of 1950, do hereby bequeath all our books, possessions, and every true virtue to the juniors we leave behind.

To the upcoming seniors we bequeath our worn out books, our worn out looks, and the hundreds of senior privileges we strived so hard to obtain.

To Mr. Rose, Mr. Dowd, and the faculty we leave the school building.

To the student body we leave Mr. Dowd, the best principal in North Carolina.

Nancy Allen, Janice Lewis, and Belva Jackson leave their quietness to Frances Signmon, "Doogie" Larkins, and Nancy Proctor.

Zelma Boyd leaves her position as majorette to any girl who likes to freeze in winter and roast in summer.

Peggy Barrow leaves her ability and love for dancing to Joyce Smith.

Harvey Bradshaw leaves his writing ability to Mary Hadley.

Myrtle Briley leaves, at last free to join her husband without the interference to school.

Paul Conway leaves his trumpet to "Weenie" Murray.

Carmen Dunn leaves her new fads to anyone who may use them.

Bobby Flye leaves his ability to get along with people to Janet Waters.

Carolyn Hines leaves her dependability to Mary Ann Waldrop.

Jean Hollingsworth leaves with wedding bells ringing in her ears.

Barbee Riddick leaves her friendliness to Carolyn Clapp.

Louise Briley and Billy Tilghman leave their good looks to Ann Sutton and Billy Wooten.

Fred Dowdy leaves his flat feet to anyone who deserves them.

Jack Neilson and Peggy Bland leave their physique and figure to Leon Moore and Billie Jean Simpson.

Martha MacKenzie leaves her many "Nashes" to Sue Lassiter.

Betty Sue Harris leaves her superlative to Bobbie Winberry.

Edna Hodges leaves "her way" with men to Jean Tetterton.

Louise McGowan leaves her singing ability to Barbara White.

Martha Gilbert leaves her "annual" worries to Margaret Fleming.

John Whitehurst and Bill Jordan leave their positions of holding down the street corner to Max Jordan and James Ray Roberson.

Norwood Whitehurst leaves his cuteness to Jake Higgs.

Robert Sutton leaves everybody an easy way to go.

Joe Sawyer leaves his shortness to Billy Woolfolk.

Barbara Russell leaves her popularity to Mary Ann Smoot.

Jimmy Cox leaves his athletic abilities to Johnny Aman.

Louis Clark leaves his energy and loudness to Helen Stokes.

Riding Swapper, her horse, Kitty Smith leaves.

Betty Sue Branch leaves her white saddle oxfords to Virginia Jones.

Tommy Pace, Billy Faulkner, and Francis Oakes leave theirtall, lanky frames to Johnny Sideris, Billy Brady, and Joel Bunch.

Ray Sears and Mitchell Saieed leave their ability to get along with Mr. Starling to all students in American and world history classes.

Julian Vainwright leaves his dreamy, brown eyes to Zack Taft.

Betty Jean Allen leaves her walk to Shirley Brown Manning.

Franklin Brown leaves—still a Girl Scout.

Bobby Williams, Dwight Garrett, and Billy Laughinghouse leave Sharlene,, Catherine, and Janice to all the GHS wolves.

Marie Anne Scheller leaves with everyone missing her sweet face and friendliness.

Max Joyner and Karl Turner leave to work on the farm in the heat of the sun.

Betty Wadford, Carol Stocks, Jennie Baker, and Joyce Calhoun leave what is left of their typewriters to next year's students.

Walter Goor leaves his running ability to some lucky football player.

Jake Stauffer leaves his flashy smile to Hilary Phelps.

Jimmy Brady, Billy Holbert, and Curtis Paul leave their books to their fellow junior victims.

Hilda Speight leaves—at last!

Harold Edwards leaves with his hunting gun on his shoulder.

Lorraine Boyd, Doris Briley, Myrtle Culbreth, Ruby Morgan, and Joyce Buck leave their out of school jobs to enterprising juniors.

Eugene Ayers leaves to find his rich wife.

Tommy Lupton leaves with that gleam in his eyes.

Richard Joyner, George Hines, and Dean Stocks leave their surplus absence excuses to Christine Spain, Peggy Martin, and Doris Dawson.

Peggy Bowen leaves his ability to play the piano to Janet Watson.

John Brigham leaves his bass voice to Janie Wingate.

Louis Taylor leaves his poise to Frances Sigmon.

Loretta Carson and Pat Simpson leave their typing ability to all students in second-year typing.

Ann Duke, Grace Fleming, Vernice Howard, and Barbara Smith leave with tears in their eyes.

Anne Rae Waters leaves her ability to write editorials to Ann McCrary.

Nancy Smith leaves—again.

SENIORS!

We have watched you since you started in the first grade, and we are indeed mighty proud of your past records and achievements.

During our 84 continuous years of service in Greenville and the vicinity, we have done business with your mothers and fathers, grandmothers and grandfathers.

Now the time has come when we look forward with great pleasure to doing business with you.

To a mean "little" boy who is sweet at times (maybe). May you have all the luck this "ole" world has offer.

a friend,
Earlena

To a very nice boy that I hope will make good in school and every thing he does. May you have the best of luck in any thing you try to do. See you next year.

Lots of Luck
Mary Leggett

To a nice boy and I hope you all the happiness in the world with luck
Clara May Waters

I wish you the best of luck always and may you succed in every attempt you make.
